MEMO ENDORSED

Re: United States v. Bernard Beebe

07 CR 542

Honorable Judge Robinson:

I am sending this letter to supplement my request for an extension of time in which to file motions in the above-captioned matter.

As I am certain you are aware of, the Jewish holidays commence on Wednesday evening, September 12th, through the remainder of the week and the following weekend, as well.

My office went to Homeland Security, with the permission of A.U.S.A. Richard Tarlowe, on Friday, September 7th. We are required to meet with the agents again, since we need to see the original computers and how they work. This is tentatively scheduled for the week of September 17th. I wanted to view the computers, as well as the material on the computers, prior to filing the motions.

As such, I am once again respectfully requesting, with the permission of Mr. Tarlowe, a reasonable extension of time to enable me to file any and all appropriate motions that are necessary. I am leaving my office in the later afternoon of Wednesday, September 12th.

Respectfully yours,

Gary Greenwald
